

Technical drawings of a building structure, including two side elevations and a top-down view (draufsicht). The side elevations show a tall, slender, hourglass-shaped structure with a grid-like facade. The top-down view shows a complex, multi-lobed plan with concentric lines.

